Data Management

Users that have been assigned the role of Data Administrator can access the Data Management through the Navigation menu in the top navigation bar. When doing so, the main Data Management screen will appear, giving you a list of all available Warehouses and Cubes as well as several options for adding new data.