

Root Cause Analysis

The Root Cause Analysis offers a statistical view on the data attributes. It will compare the data selected through the current filter setting (variant) with the complete data set (reference). For each chosen attribute a comparison of the absolute and relative frequency of every attribute value within the filtered and the whole data set is made.