Source Configuration

Here you can specify the source systems for the authentication system and the user / group providers.

You can configure LDAP systems and database systems on the left by clicking on the - button.

To implement a source, you need to select a name, URL, username, password and search base/ driverclassname:
blocked URL

Don't forget to save your settings with .